New Beginnings in Christ is a Christian home with open doors to men suffering from drug and alcohol addictions. The ministry is funded entirely by donations. We do not charge any fees nor do we receive State or Government funding. Only prayer and donations keep our non-profit recovery home operating. New Beginnings in Christ provides the men with a safe environment, food, shelter and spiritual needs. If you would like to make a donation, they are a registered 501 © (3) non-profit recovery home and your tax deductible contributions will help change the lives of many.
